

OSU College of Forestry
McDonald-Dunn Research Forest Community Listening Session
Peavy Forest Science Center and Online (via Zoom)
31 August 2022

Agenda

Meeting Purpose: Gain an understanding of community perceptions of important topics, values, and features to consider in the development of a new management plan for the McDonald and Dunn Research Forests.

Start time	Leader(s)	Activity
6:30pm	Turner Odell Senior Project Manager, Oregon Consensus	Welcome and Introductions  Inform that Oregon Consensus was hired to facilitate stakeholder engagement throughout the forest management plan development process
6:35pm	Tom DeLuca Dean, College of Forestry	Thank you for participating in this process
6:40pm	Holly Ober Associate Dean of Outreach &amp; Extension, College of Forestry	Overview of the College of Forestry and background context for the forest management planning effort. Clarification that the intent of the listening sessions is for the College to hear from the community.  Overview of questions that will guide the discussion at this session  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What should the plan include to ensure the forests provide opportunities for innovative education, research, and extension/outreach</li> <li>• What should the plan include to ensure the forests provide opportunities for how sustainable management can balance multiple objectives (including conservation, climate and wildfire resiliency, harvest/revenue, and other objectives)</li> <li>• What should the plan include to ensure the forests provide opportunities for recreation and community connections</li> </ul>
6:50pm	Turner Odell and colleagues Oregon Consensus	Gathering of input from participants on the 3 questions in-person and via 2 sub-groups participating remotely (via Zoom)
8:00pm		Adjourn

Next steps: Oregon Consensus will compile all comments verbatim into a report which will be shared along with a synthesized summary report of the comments. This report will be shared with the Stakeholder Advisory Committee (SAC) and Faculty Planning Committee (FPC), and posted online.